1. What is the purpose of the Daily Scrum
(This was discussed in lecture 'Learning Objective: Scrum Events')
 - a. For the Scrum Master to be aware of the plan for the next 24 hours.
 - b. For the Developers to inspect progress toward the Sprint Goal and adapt the Sprint Backlog as necessary, adjusting the upcoming planned work.
 - c. For the Product Owner to acquire an update on the plan for the next 24 hours.

Correct Answer: Option b – For the Developers to inspect progress toward the Sprint Goal and adapt the Sprint Backlog as necessary, adjusting the upcoming planned work.

Explanation:

Option a – Incorrect answer. Please try again.

Option b – Good job! Correct. The Daily Scrum is a 15-minute time-boxed event for the Developers to synchronize activities and create a plan for the next 24 hours. This is done by inspecting the work since the last Daily Scrum and forecasting the work that could be done before the next one. The Development Team uses the Daily Scrum to inspect progress toward the Sprint Goal.

Option c – Incorrect answer. Please try again.

2. What is the purpose of the Sprint Review?
- a. For the Scrum team to show the Product Owner their progress.
 - b. For the Scrum team and stakeholders to discuss what was done in the Sprint.
Attendees then collaborate on the next things that could be done to optimize value.
 - c. For the Scrum Master to demo the progress to the Product Owner and Stakeholders.

Correct Answer: Option b - For the Scrum team and stakeholders to discuss what was done in the Sprint. Attendees then collaborate on the next things that could be done to optimize value.

Explanation:

Option a – Incorrect. The Product Owner should be involved during the sprint and should not be finding out during the Sprint Review.

Option b – Good job! Yes. A Sprint Review is held at the end of the Sprint to inspect the Increment and adapt the Product Backlog if needed. During the Sprint Review, the Scrum Team and stakeholders collaborate about what was done in the Sprint. Based on that and any changes to the Product Backlog during the Sprint, attendees collaborate on the next things that could be done to optimize value. This is an informal meeting, not a status meeting, and the presentation of the Increment is intended to elicit feedback and foster collaboration.
